Letters From The Chairs

CHINONA ICEPAW
Convention Chair

In October of 2013, I attended my first LARP ever as a Snow Leopard, complete with the tail and brass bell. I was promptly asked if I was a furry. I was not. I did not even know what a furry was! Boy, did that change, and I attended my first ever furrycon in 2014, attending Fur-Eh! at the Sawridge Inn. It was quite the event, and I was hooked! I must admit that I never thought it would lead to me writing a conchair letter for Fur-Eh! alongside one of my best friends, Toasty. I suspect though that one look at us working together and many will go, "yes, two sneps are always better than one," especially with having to take on the reigns of such a massive event.

Fur-Eh! has experienced one of its largest staff transitions in a long time, which has been difficult, but the Staff have been absolute rockstars, stepping up and making sure that everything the event needed was done. Without our Staff and our stellar group of Volunteers, all of whom have been infinitely patient with us, this event would not be what it is for you, our fantastic Guests. If you see a Staff member or a Volunteer, please thank them, because me and Toasty cannot do so nearly enough!

Last year, our Guests helped us to put on an amazing event, with record-breaking attendance! I have no doubt that this year is going to be an encore performance that is going to be even bigger and better! As a creative force, the furry fandom is innovative and amazing; the variety of panels and vendors and performances and kindness that we show each other, especially when we need it the most, is rivalled by very few fandoms. With returning favourites and new events, we hope that you, our Guests, will enjoy your extended weekend here with us and that we will see you again next year!

TOASTY
Vice-Chair

I still remember my own early furry days, being invited to Telegram and getting into the fursuit side of things. I never really kept my involvement a secret, and the entire Canadian Military wound up finding out.

2018 was when I officially came onto the whole furry scene, but I am sure that there were plenty of influences on me in the early 90s as well as other influences around 2010 and onward.

I am still coming to terms with having the opportunity to be the Second in Command for a furrycon. It's a wild thing that I never thought would happen, despite telling Chinona many times at WPFCon that I wanted her job as conchair, but here we go!

We all face challenges that we must overcome, and I am looking forward to helping make this year - and coming years - super fun! I hope to help create a fun and safe space for furries from all walks of life to enjoy. And I look forward to making mistakes and learning from them, trying new things, meeting new people, and growing our community.

Please, never hesitate to say hello to me if you see me walking around the event, and thank you all so much for your continued support and love.

Here's to many more years of Fur-Eh!!

Our Charity Partner

The Greater Edmonton Animal Rescue Society (GEARS) was formed in 2013 to help injured, abandoned, unwanted, and homeless animals.

GEARS strives to change all that is within our power and our power is great. Our volunteers, foster homes, fundraising, and community partners work as one. The animals we can give a second chance to change us. They bring together new families, volunteers, and donors – spreading joy and the courage to realize our vision and mission. If you're looking for a new family member, GEARS might have one for you! Our application process is easy but thorough. We care about where our animals are going and want to give them the best chance of a successful match. We ensure all animals receive vetting including vaccinations, spays/neuter, microchip, and any other medical care they need before being cleared for adoption. GEARS is a member of the Alberta Force Free Alliance and any animal with behaviour issues will receive behaviour support before and after adoption. We also provide our adopters with a post-adoption support group so you can ask questions or share your happily ever after photos.

GEARS is a foster home based rescue. This means our animals are in loving homes, learning everything they can to prepare for their forever home. We are always looking for both temporary and long-term foster homes. The more foster homes we have, the more animals we can help.

GEARS provides everything you need to provide proper care for your foster animal. We provide supplies such as a kennel, leash, toys, food, treats and more as well as covering veterinary expenses.

We need loving homes to keep our rescues happy and healthy. Along with regular exercise and feeding, we expect our foster homes to provide socialization and basic training to ensure our fosters are ready for adoption.

GEARS is non-profit, charitable organization (822791430RR0001) that is run by a passionate community of volunteers and foster homes relying on monetary donations, and donations of goods and services.

We are always looking for dedicated individuals to join our team. Areas include event planning, fundraising, transportation, medical, and more.

Our mission is to increase responsible pet ownership through public education, ultimately diminishing the need for rescue intervention.

Our vision is simple, we are gearing towards a future where animals are treated with compassion and respect.

GEARS

There are numerous ways to donate to our charity throughout the event.

1. Donate directly to GEARS at their table in the Vendors Village.
2. Bid on heinous toppings that Thallanor will have to put on top of tacos and eat in "Thall Eats... Tacos."
3. Bid on donated artwork, goods and convention-used signage during the Live Charity Auction on Sunday with all proceeds going to GEARS.
4. Donate at select marquee events during the weekend when our Staff or Volunteers come around with a collection bucket. Every nickel counts!

Don't worry if you don't have cash!
We will accept credit and debit via Square at most charity-related events.

Anyare

Give us a brief rundown of who you are.

Hi! I'm Anyare, a Canadian Furry Artist. I've been involved in the fandom for many years, drawing and working with many folks to bring their furry ideas and fursonas to life. I am also a professional artist and have worked in the Canadian Television Animation Industry for 12 years. I've worked on several Canadian and US television series across various networks from Teletoon to Netflix.

What got you into the fandom?

From a young age, I loved animals and I loved to draw. Naturally, I was drawn to a lot of the animated Disney classics such as The Lion King. As I grew older, my love for both only grew, and I knew that I wanted to pursue a career in Animation and Drawing. And with the internet, I was able to find communities of people who loved animals, anthropomorphic animals, art, and animation. It was a community I fit right into and have always felt at home in.

How long have you been involved in Furry?

I have been involved in the Furry Fandom since 2007. I attended my first furry con in 2010 (Furnal Equinox!) where I started selling my artwork and interacting with the fandom in person, and haven't looked back since! :)

What the best advice you got about being an artist?

The best advice I can give is to keep on drawing and practicing! And most importantly - find your inspiration! You will be surprised at how much you can accomplish and how much you will grow as an artist with just practicing the craft.

What advice would you give to other artists, particularly those just starting out?

Find subject matters that you enjoy drawing, and mediums you enjoy working with. Observe and draw from life - o the most fun and beneficial exercises for beginner and experienced artists has been drawing from life (animals, pe and poses!). Life drawing is an amazing excercise to learn anatomy, gesture drawing and posing. Always be willing to learn and try new things. If you can, don't be afraid to reach out to other artists for critique. Sometimes it's just matter of getting fresh eyes on something you might've been working on for a long time. It might also be helpful to observe other artists as they work, and ask questions if allowed...you can always pick up new tips and tricks. Art j are great for this!

What is your most favorite medium for art you have used?

My preferred and favoured medium to work in is Digital (Screen Tablet - Wacom Cintiq 24HD - Paint Tool Sai and Photoshop) However, some of my favourite "Fun" tools are traditional mediums including Copic Markers and Inks Coloured Pencils.

What are three fun facts about you that we should know?

When I'm not drawing, I love getting outdoors, especially out Fishing! I love exploring new trails and enjoying the serenity of nature. My favourite animals are Tigers and Orcas (of course!). And I have the most adorable, Furry art supervisor named Ruby (My dog! ;3)

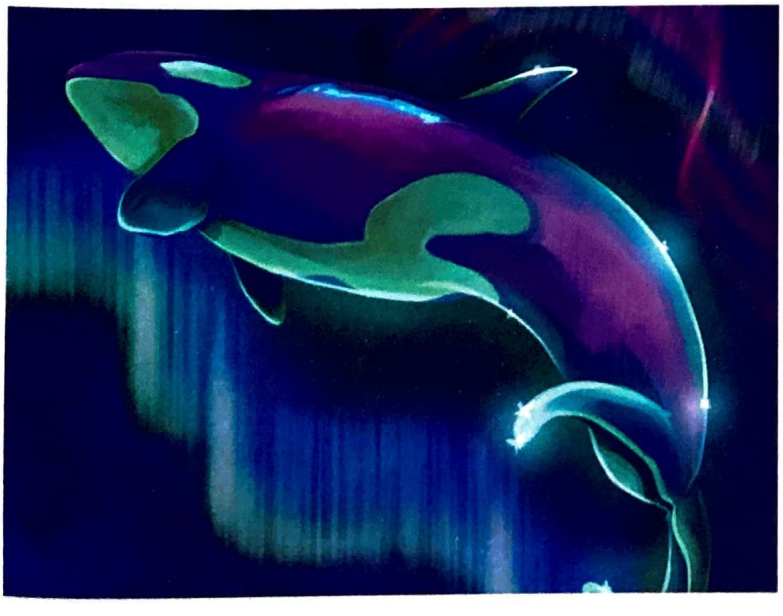
VELUX



Beetlecat

My name is Deanna, also known as Beetlecat; and I am the founder and artist behind Beetlecat Originals. With my fursuit work, I aim to guide clients' self-expression & encourage their personal power through premium works of textile art that are attractive, expressive and unique.

I established my art business in 2002 (while working and going to college) but in 2005 I decided to focus my business solely on fursuit work for the furry fandom; officially founding Beetlecat Originals and quitting my job in Forestry as well as my other artistic pursuits.

The first book about being artistic in business that I really connected with is called "Ignore Everybody: And 39 Other Keys to Creativity" by Hugh MacLeod. After the preface, it opens with "Ignore everybody. The more original your idea is, the less good advice other people will be able to give you."

While that maybe wasn't the single most important quote I took from the book, I think it fit fursuit-making in the early 2000's very well. As well as how my decision to become a fursuit maker was generally seen by others from the outside as well as in the advice they'd give me.

None of the classic business advice (aside from how to pay taxes lol) was particularly relevant when it came to such a unique niche product (that basically didn't even exist as a standardized product or even a business concept yet). So early fursuit makers pretty much leaned on each other and on the furry fandom to direct where this road shall lead.

And now, 2 decades later, I think we've done pretty okay in collectively creating a whole new industry for ourselves to enjoy!

For those just now getting into the fandom and into fursuit-making; It's going to be tough. There is now very strong competition in established artists with strong followings and a lot of experience. But that also means that there are examples to follow now. There are set practices and materials. There are tutorials, blog posts, and Patreons to join to pick up the basics. And then expanding past that, there is ALWAYS more room for innovation. There is always new technology and new ideas to explore and advance upon for the next wave of artists.

Even after being in the industry long enough now for me to date, marry, and now have a kid going into middle school; I believe we have not even reached the crest of what is possible with fursuits.

Five Facts about me:

- I went to NAIT and graduated with a 2-year degree in Biological Sciences: Renewable Resources.
- I worked for 3 years as a Lookout Observer at two fire towers in northern Alberta.
- Born in Alberta and living in California, I am still Canadian and have not yet chosen to become a USA citizen. I'm a Resident Alien!
- I have two lovely girls (ages 6 and 11) with my husband, Farouthere, whom I met though the furry community. Thanks furry!
- Our newest family member is a 3-year-old apricot-red poodle named Mara Jade.

Tips & Tricks

Top 5 Tips to make your visit to the Anthro World Games spectacular!

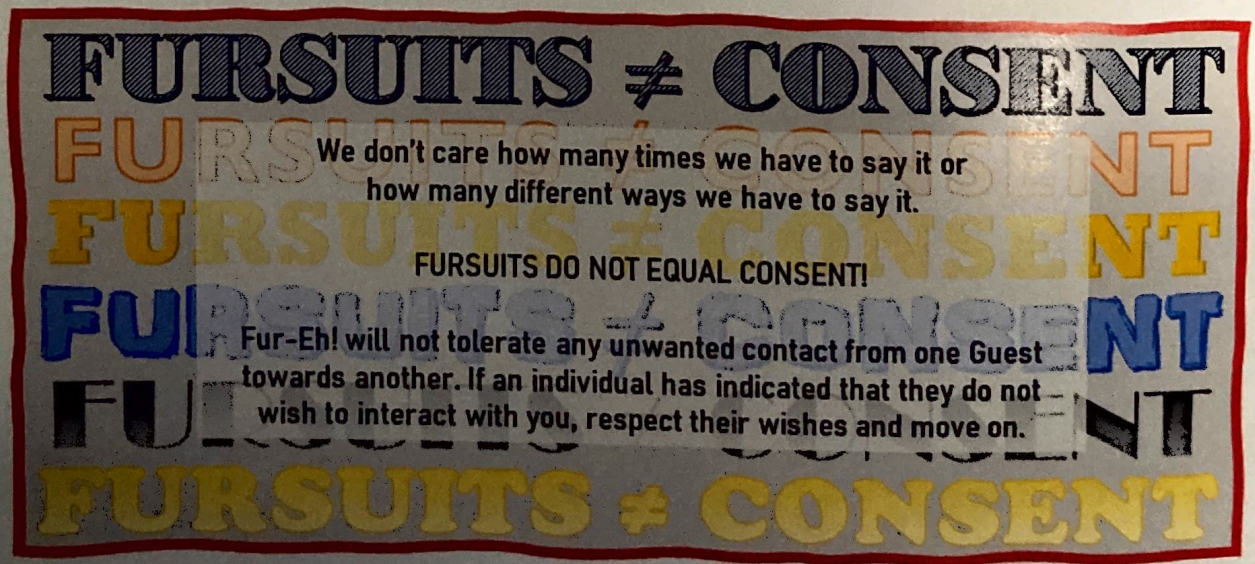
5. The best view of the Fur-Eh! Parade is by the roped off parking stalls on the south side of the hotel. Viewing will also be possible, though limited for room, on the east side of the hotel. Every fursuiter in the Parade will take the same route, so no matter where you are viewing from, you will be able to see all of the amazing participants. (Note: In the case of inclement weather, the Parade may have to be cancelled and will not be rescheduled.)

4. Shop 'til you drop! This year, the Vendors Village has gone split level with a whole new look. You will find both the Constore, as well as our charity partner, GEARS, right near the main entrance. Check out the map to plan the best route to visit all your favourite dealers. Plus, don't forget about the Artists Alley and there's also the Art Show where you can bid on your favourite artist's work. With all that, there's always something for everyone at Fur-Eh!

3. "Pics or it didn't happen!" Let's make Fur-Eh! memorable for your favorite fursuiters and performers by taking lots of photos (with their permission, of course). Post them on your favorite social media and tag the official @fureh Twitter, using the hashtag #FUREH2024!

2. With over 1,300 Attendees expected, our advice for attending our most popular events is to get there early! Those events include Opening & Closing Ceremonies, The Dance Competition, Floor Wars and the Talent Show. (If you are a Silver, Gold or Platinum registration tier, you will receive early seating assignment while space is available at the aforementioned events.) As a courtesy to other Guests and Panelists, please arrive on time for all events to reduce disruption.

1. Do the con YOUR way! There's no "right" way to enjoy the Convention. Your visit to Fur-Eh! may include plenty of exciting entertainment, dining and shopping or it can just be a time to spend some time with friends. It's up to you how you want to spend your time with us, but no matter how you make the most of that time, make sure to get some rest, eat properly, stay hydrated and don't overdo it! You'll feel better and won't burn out before your visit is over!



FURSUITS ≠ CONSENT
We don't care how many times we have to say it or how many different ways we have to say it.
FURSUITS DO NOT EQUAL CONSENT!
Fur-Eh! will not tolerate any unwanted contact from one Guest towards another. If an individual has indicated that they do not wish to interact with you, respect their wishes and move on.
